OUT ON THE LIMB

with George Vierhuis

THAT THERE ARE plenty of gas stations and apartments in town (or on the drawing board) will be conceded by many people... ,

We think.

But then again there are those who think differently.

As f'instance, just recently, city approval was given to two large apartment complexes on W. Hamilton Ave., and another townhouse development received the blessing of the Planning Commission at the San Tomas Expressway.

Both the Planning Commission and the City Council approved the complexes on W. Hamilton after lengthy hearings.

In both cases it meant that the present commercial zoning on the areas on which the complexes were planned would have to be changed to allow the apartments.

That, of course, brings up a terribly sticky question.

Commercial areas versus apartments.

To over-simplify the situation, how do you justify that it is smart business to give up commercially zoned areas so that apartments can be built?

Either too much of the city was zoned commercially in the first place and not enough for apartments.

Or something like that.

Far be it for us to suggest the proper balance in that respect.

As we said, it is pretty sticky.

You can't win for losing.

TAKE THE OTHER night at the City Council meeting when the two apartment complexes were approved on West Hamilton.

Councilman Bill Podgorsek opposed the complexes on the basis that there was an overabundance of apartments in town now.

Bill "Pod" submitted that he had, extensively, on two occasions during the past year (once when he was running for office and the other time when he was defending the Council's position in the referendum election) contacted the electorate on a personal basis.

Bill maintained that the people had indicated that they didn't think more apartments were needed at this time and very definitely they did not want to see more gas stations in town.

Podgorsek claimed that, according to his calculations, there were 14 apartment complexes ready to go in town totalling some 1750 units.

With those that now exist, he added, that made quite a bundle.

He questioned the need for the approval of the complexes that were before the Council that night.

So he voted against 'em.

OBVIOUSLY, WHAT IS too much or too little of anything is a nebulous thing.

It all depends on the point of view.

A potential developer, for example, can cite by chapter and verse that his particular project fulfills a crying need for the community.

And the project could either be a commercial one or for multiple-housing.

That is, except for service stations.

It seems that almost everyone is agreed that to get another service station in down town would take a bit of doing.

No matter how plaintive the pleas of the applicant, it would be rough going.

That was made apparent at the hearing on those apartments on West Hamilton we were telling you about.

One of the projects called for one of those self-service or convenience markets to be located in one corner.

That particular mini-market, incidentally, presented a concept that was brand new, locally anyway, as far as mer-

The Campbell High School Buccaneer Band, directed by Clarance Savage, will share the circus spotlight with majorettes, drill teams, the pop choir, folk group and a jazz band.

Tickets for the benefit may be purchased in advance from students or at the door. Cost is $1 for adults, 75 cents for students and 50 cents for children under 12.

Proceeds will purchase band equipment and support band activities.

Chamber of Commerce on Thursday to hear report on drug abuse

Members of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce at their monthly luncheon this Thursday, Feb. 18, will hear from Haskell (Hack) Bowen, coordinator of drug abuse for the Campbell Union High School District and rated as an authority in the field.

The luncheon will be held at Zorba's, 1350 S. Bascom Ave., and members are urged to make reservations at the CofC office (378-6252).

A committee on drug abuse has been formed for the first time this year by the CofC. Bob Bullard, immediate past president of the Chamber, is chairman of the committee.

According to Bullard, it will be the intention of the new committee to act as an intermediary unit between local and county-wide groups that are concerned with the drug problem.

Newly-installed CofC president, Norm Paul, will announce the chairmen of all the Chamber of Commerce committees at the luncheon with special emphasis on the fifth annual Congress for Community Progress that will be held on March 27.

The Rev. W.H. (Ben) Gould is chairman of the Congress for the fourth consecutive year. The theme this year is "Campbell's Place In the '70's".

THE LATEST FROM LONDON

Roger Garcia, the Campbell boy who is in London to receive a new treatment for cancer, is much improved, according to Mrs. Virgil Gundy, Milton Ave., neighbor who received a telephone call from London Monday.

Mrs. Helen Garcia, Roger's mother, called Mrs. Gundy to report that the 1970 Campbell High graduate had been free from pain for the past seven hours and that he wanted to say "thanks to everyone for caring."

TO BE HONORED---Joseph A. Bonacina, this city's first and only city attorney, and who steps down on March 1 after 17 years of service to Campbell, will be honored at a "so-long" dinner at the Villa Felice this Friday, Feb. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

On March 1, J. Robert Dempster, Cupertino attorney, will succeed Bonacina.

Friends and associates of Bonacina during his 17 years as the city's chief legal counsel, will attend the affair which is described as a "low-key get together of friends of Joe".

Mayor Dean R. Chamberlin will preside.

The city's first mayor, Richard W. Morton, and Homer Hyde, who preceded Chamberlin as mayor, are expected to make brief remarks. Most of the other former mayors are also expected to be present.

Firemen union involves Council in wage dispute

Because the Firefighters Union, representing 21 city employees, have been unwilling to accept the city's final offer for salary increases for the next 18 months, a mediator from the State Conciliation Service may be asked by the City Council to enter the wage dispute picture.

The City Council next Monday, Feb. 22, is expected to take action on the question of the mediator who will be furnished at no cost to the city. The city, however, will not be bound by any decision, according to City Manager Bob Stephens.

Stephens said that the dispute hinges over a difference of 1¼% between the city's final offer and the demands of the firefighters.

The city manager added that agreements have been accepted for all the other city employees.

The Council may also next Monday direct the staff to proceed with exploring the possibilities of improving two streets in the industrial area (Dell and Division) from street improvement bonds on a 50% basis as requested by the property owners in the area.

Stephens reported this week that the bond attorneys have ruled that there is no legal problem involved and that it is a matter of city policy.

The Council next Monday also is expected to discuss new towaway rates within the city limits and is also scheduled to formally adopt the resolution making J. Robert Dempster, former Cupertino mayor, city attorney at a salary of $900 per month on a part-time basis.

STRICKEN ON SATURDAY

John D. Morgan remains critical

In a remarkable and unprecedented display of respect and devotion, hundreds of residents of Campbell this week showed their love for one of their own, Police Chief John D. Morgan, who at press time on Tuesday was reported still to be in extreme critical condition at the Los Gatos Community Hospital.

Chief Morgan, 40, was stricken at his home Saturday afternoon and was taken to the hospital where the doctors diagnosed the sudden attack as a severe cerebral hemorrhage.

On Tuesday night, almost 200 persons assembled at the Knights of Columbus hall on Wedgewood Ave. where a special Mass and prayer service were conducted for the stricken chief of police.

The service was scheduled on just a few hours notice and people were notified by word-of-mouth. And they came by hundreds.

The devotions were sponsored by the Knights of Columbus of which Chief Morgan is a member, but both Catholics and Non-Catholics, men, women and children jammed the hall.

Among those attending were all the members of the City Council, the city manager and many of his fellow city employees, including police officers visibly shaken by their chief's illness.

But the prayers of the community were not the sole province of members of Morgan's own faith...

A group of members of the Methodist Church on Tuesday organized a prayer chain on the chief's behalf, for Chief Morgan has meant a great deal to members of the First United Methodist Church of Campbell.

FOR CAMPBELL SCHOOL TRUSTEE

Gilliland runs for reelection

James W. (Jim) Gilliland, 39, member of the Campbell Union School District board of trustees, this week announced that he would seek reelection in the April 20 election.

Gilliland was appointed to the board in August, 1968 and has served as president and clerk. At the present time he is vice-president.

The filing deadline is Thursday, Feb. 25.

Gilliland is the second candidate to announce for the board. Dr. Robert L. King, who served on the Citizens' Finance Advisory Committee, filed last week.

King has been critical of the board majority that demoted Neal Royer last October. Gilliland, with Mrs. Judy Ruscigno, supported Royer in the board's demotion action which instigated a citizens' recall movement against two board members, Mrs. Eleanor Graham-Armstrong and Ralph Steinberg, who voted for the demotion.

The term of Dr. Richard MacQuiddy, current board president who made the motion to demote Royer, also

Ticking ahead with the clock tower

Because of the double school holiday (Friday and Monday), reports from the ticket sales in the schools for the "package" of "clock tower matinees" at the Plaza Theater in the Campbell Plaza Center had not been completed by press time this week.

However, preliminary reports indicated that most of the schools would absorb their allotment of 50 tickets before the first matinee this Saturday.

The "package" of six shows sells for $3. Funds raised from the ticket sales will go into the Clock tower fund and will be used to construct the tower at the city hall which was eliminated by the City Council in the interest of economy.

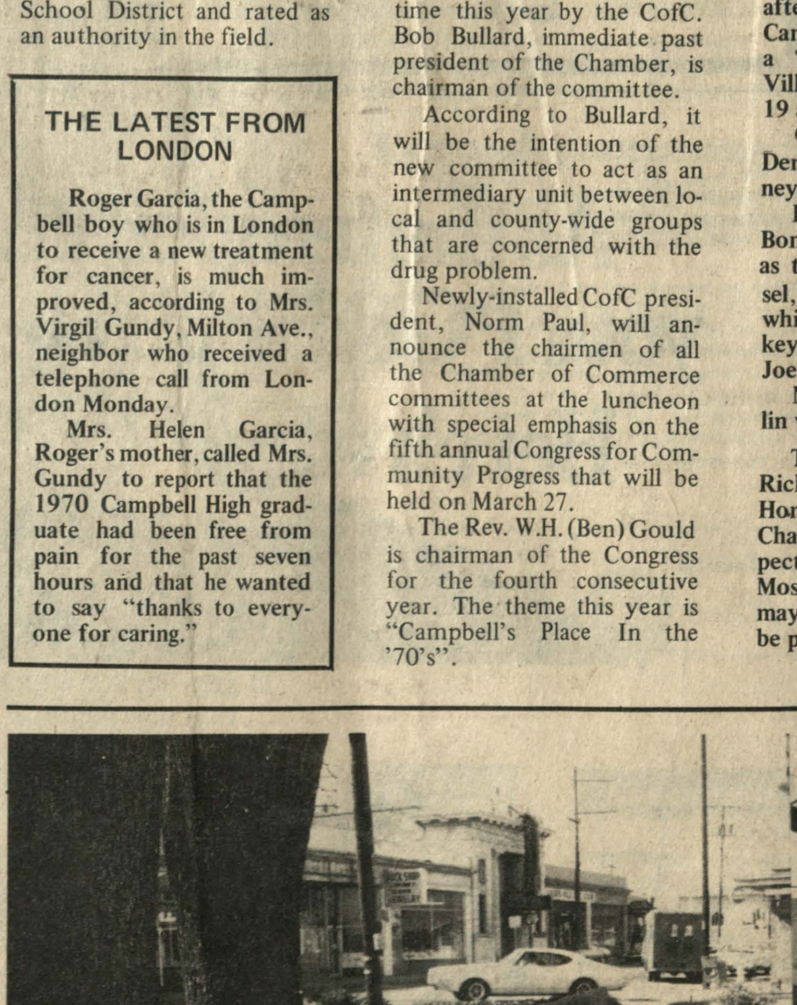
With the blessing of the City Council, the Chamber of Commerce has undertaken the job of raising $5000 that is needed to construct the tower. The school district is cooperating in the project in allowing the matinee tickets to be sold in the schools.

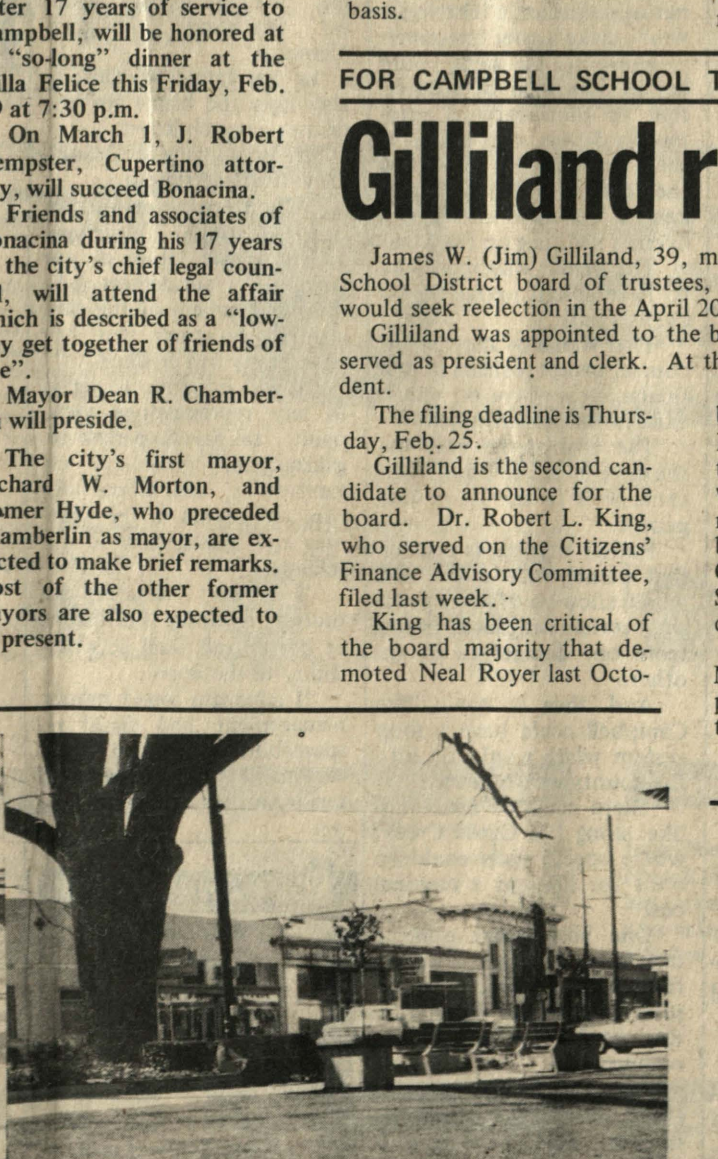
There will be two shows each Saturday, starting Feb. 20 and extending through March 27. The first show will be at 10 a.m. and the second starts at 12:30 p.m.

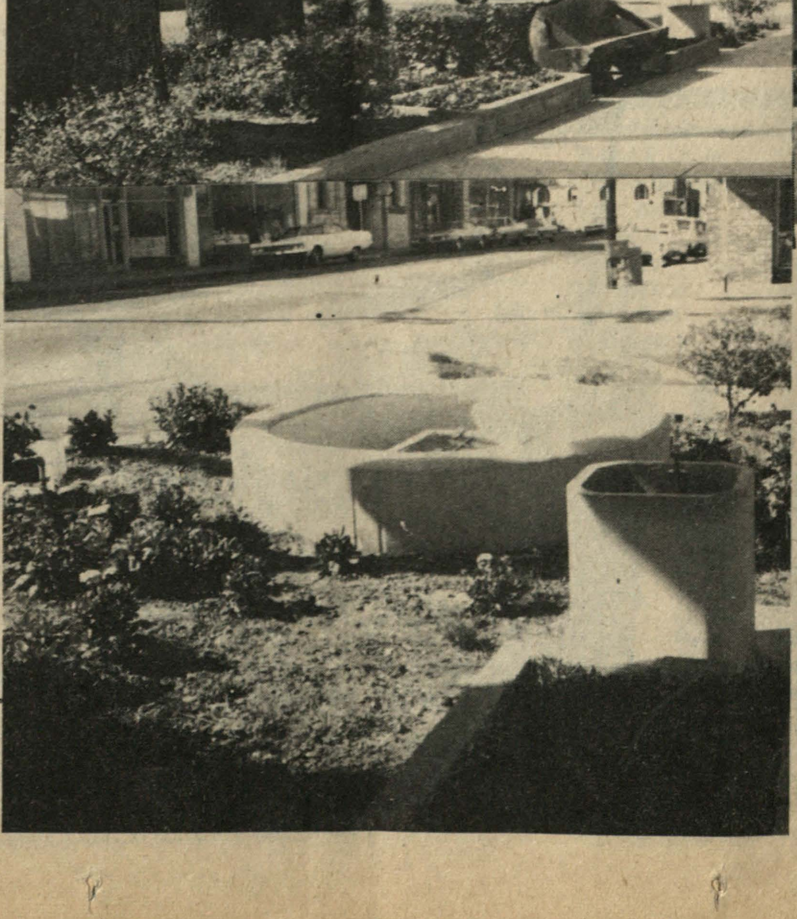
"The Daring Young Men and Their Jaunty Jalopies" will be shown this Saturday and on Feb. 27 the show will be "Run Wild, Run Free."

Tickets are being sold on the first come, first served basis. The theater has a capacity of 700 (1400 for both shows).

It has been pointed out that, if the shows are not sold out prior to the start of the matinee, tickets may be purchased at the door but will cost 75-cents instead of 50-cents.







COUNCIL THINKS

Fountain should flow

The fountain is to flow again.

Campbell's attractive mini-park at Harrison and Campbell avenues offers a picturesque and restful setting under the city's famed landmarks, the stately and ancient (90-years) walnut trees.

But for quite a spell now, the fountain that graces the tranquil plot has not been spouting water.

At a recent City Council meeting, Councilman Ed Rogers, who heads the Council's civic improvement committee, recommended that the city staff be directed to replace the fountain with one that works.

The other Council members were sympathetic to the idea. The matter was referred to the Parks and Recreation Commission for action.

So, on with the flow.

Editorial

An area of concern

One of the areas of concern which we think needs to be improved is the relationship between county government on one hand and the various cities within the county.

Too often we get the impression when the county people are working with city officials on some mutual problem that there is a conflict between the two governmental bodies that should not exist. For sure there is a communication gap.

The conflict sometimes flares into open hostility, which is difficult to understand because both groups should have the same objective, i.e., what is best for the people.

Too often we have seen this rivalry develop to such an extent that it appears the two bodies become almost as competitive as two private industries vying for the same contract.

We do not think such an attitude is helpful, even if the officials concerned are sincere in their beliefs.

The current financial problem affecting the proposed county library for Campbell illustrates to some extent what we mean.

County and city officials are now attempting to work out the details that affect the proposed library, which is to be built largely with city bond funds, supplemented by a federal grant, and then leased to the county library district.

Campbell voters in 1967 approved $400,000 in bonds for a library to be lease-purchased by the county (library district). A joint powers agreement was negotiated with the county, which is a fairly common method to finance such projects.

One point, however, must be made clear. There is no such thing as a "Campbell library", technically speaking.

Citizens of Campbell are part of the county library district. They are taxed (currently 21-cents per $100 assessed valuation) separately for the district. The tax is apart from either the county general tax or the city tax.

The people of Campbell via the 21-cent tax pay their share toward the county-wide library system.

So far, so good.

The original bond issue in 1967 called for a 12,000 square foot library to be part of the city hall that is now under construction.

Subsequent to the passage of the bonds, a federal grant of $200,000 was obtained by the county library system to be used for the construction of the library with the condition that the library be doubled in size to 24,000 square feet.

With the concurrence of the county librarian, the city acquired, with bond funds, properties across the street from the new city hall on which the expanded library would be located because the enlarged facility could not fit into the original city hall plans.

City officials make it clear that they did not shift to the new site on their own initiative. They did so because of the doubling of the space and with the understanding that the county would continue to fund the bonds as per the original agreement.

But now county officials claim that there is not enough money available to proceed on the 24,000 square foot library.

Now one high county official conveniently overlooks the expansion plan that was initiated by another county official. He has suggested that the city revert to the original 12,000 square foot building.

The county brass has even suggested that, if Campbell wants a 14,000 square foot building, the city should go back to the voters for another bond issue.

We are disturbed by this attitude on the part of county officialdom.

They seem to indicate that Campbell is an entity entirely separate from the county and that it was Campbell that was responsible for the idea of a bigger library when it was the county's suggestion and the acceptance of the federal grant by the county would verify that.

We resent the high county officials talking down to Campbell and suggesting "you must do this", as if the citizens of Campbell were not part and parcel of the same county library district which is involved in the matter.

We don't get it.

chandising was concerned.

It offered computerized gas pumps as an added feature, so to speak.

IT SEEMS THAT, according to the proponents of the idea, it won't be uncommon in the future to see gas pumps at these self-service convenience markets.

It is a "convenience" that the public has demanded, according to the people who franchise these operations.

The Planning Commission and the City Council approved the plans for the apartment complex and the market.

But they wasted very little time in eliminating the gas pumps.

And, of course, the question of gas pumps at a mini-market raised an interesting point.

Does the mini-market become a service station when gas pumps are added, as far as the city regulations are concerned?

The interpretation was that the market did become a gas station in that case.

So there you are.

-0-

SOMEONE IN THE AUDIENCE ticked off the number of gas stations that are now located on Hamilton Ave., starting right next door to the proposed convenience market and extending a short distance in both directions.

It was quite a bunch...more than 20.

During the discussion on the issue, naturally, there were a number of ideas tossed around as to what these computerized gas pump-markets should be called.

Fittingly it was City Attorney Joe Bonacina, who steps out of office on March 1 after 19 years of service to the city, who came up with the best definition.

"Maybe they should be called "gasoline-bars", the city's veteran legal beagle intoned.

BIKE TRAILS THROUGHout the county sound great to us.

We realize that just designating a street as a bike route won't make it safer for travel.

However, the signs could act as somewhat of a deterrent to those careless automobile drivers who could, if they would, when they saw the distinctive street signs, keep a wary eye out for bicyclists pedalling on the road.

The perfect way would be to have special routes for bicyclists only.

That would be illogical, of course, except perhaps in particular areas where no streets exist at the present time.

The goal of the bike enthusiasts is not to have roads exclusively for the use of bike people.

Rather the idea is a specified county-wide route that would allow bicyclists to pedal only certain designated streets from one destination to another.

And then a town like Campbell could have a loop system which would tie into the county-wide bikeway.

There could be areas, say like along Los Gatos Creek, where special trails could be built for bikes at a nominal cost.

One bike expert pointed out that the base of these trails would not have to be too solid because they don't carry the weight that automobile roadways do.

Another person suggested that most bike riders, he thought, would be willing to pay a nominal license fee, if they knew the money would go toward constructing bikeways.

Anyway we like the idea of designating bike routes and building special bikeways, wherever and whenever possible.

And we would enjoy pedalling over 'em.

Congress' plans include posters by local students

Plans continue for the Fifth Annual Congress for Community Progress scheduled for March 27 at West Valley College.

This week, children in the Campbell Union (elementary) School District, under the guidance of Mrs. Marsha Wells, district art coordinator, are making posters promoting the community event.

About 30 posters will be selected from art classes to be displayed by local merchants.

The Congress, guided by Rev. William "Ben" Gould, is undertaking four major subject areas for discussion and recommendation.

Gould himself will chair a fifth discussion group for "catch-all" subjects. The four topics will be ecology, education, law and justice and taxation.

POSTER-MAKERS --- Chris Chirolas and Cathy Campbell of Blackford Elementary School display poster ideas to promote the Fifth Annual Congress for Community Progress which will be held at West Valley College March 27. Students throughout the school district have volunteered to make posters to promote the Congress.

Chief Morgan

One of Morgan's closest friends and one who has worked with him in many youth activities and other civic endeavors is the Rev. W. H. (Ben) Gould, Methodist pastor.

The chief has often appeared as a guest of the Rev. Gould in the pulpit at the Methodist Church and has preached at several of the morning services.

Chief Morgan, who has been with the Campbell police department since 1955 and has been chief for the past 11 years, on Saturday afternoon was preparing to take a youth's basketball team he was coaching to the scheduled game when he complained of a severe headache, the first symptom of the pending attack.

Police Captain Don Burr, who has been temporarily appointed acting chief, substituted for "Coach" Morgan at the basketball game.

While the game was in progress, Burr was notified that Morgan had been rushed to the hosptial.

Morgan, and his wife, Connie, who are the parents of eight children, have resided in the area since 1955 and have been active in civic and church affairs, with special emphasis on youth activities.

Hordes of understandably concerned friends and well-wishers have deluged the hospital and the Morgan residence for reports on the chief's condition, Burr said.

Burr appealed to the people to please refrain from calling the Morgan home and added that the police department (378-8141) will be able to furnish the latest information on the Chief's condition.

No announcement has been made to date by MacQuiddy as to whether he will seek re-election. However, he has distributed letters to many of his former supporters asking if they will support him.

In a "p.s." to his letter, MacQuiddy asks: "If you really wish I'd quit the board, put a large X through the pledge form and return it to me. No hard feelings. Honest. But would you sign it please...."

In his letter MacQuiddy also lays the blame for the district woes on Royer.

In announcing his candidacy, Gilliland stated:

"The primary reason for existence of our educational system is the future of our children. I am dedicated to the development of the best learning programs that our community can produce.

"I will continue to listen to any representative viewpoint: taxpayers, parent organizations, community organizations, and school district employees in the planning and management of our schools.

"I support delegating authority requiring fulfillment of duties and final accountability to the Board.

"I advocate sound money management and fiscal responsibility which will assure reasonable class size and quality instruction."

Heismann trophy winner will attend Garcia benefit

A variety show at Campbell High School will be presented Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 26 and 27, to benefit the Roger Garcia Fund, recently started to help pay the treatment and expenses for a young Campbell boy stricken with cancer.

Titled "Happiness Is a Tomorrow" the program will feature the joint efforts of a number of young Campbell talents; singers, dancers, skits and special guest Jim Plunkett, nationally known Stanford quarterback and winner of the Heismann Trophy.

The production is coordinated by John Hall, Campbell High School drama coach. Goal for the program is to raise $2000 toward helping young Garcia, now in England, pay for special treatment to arrest the cancerous growth on his spine. Garcia graduated from Campbell High last June.

The program will be held at 8 p.m. on Saturday followed by a Sunday matinee at 3 p.m.

Govenor's budget cuts affect college building

Governor Reagan's "austere" budget presented to the legislature recently has grave financial implications for West Valley College.

In a report to the governing board Dr. Leroy Lowery, dean of business services, told the board that if the governor's budget was approved as proposed West Valley would receive 7 per cent of what it had anticipated for construction projects in 1971-72.

James P. Hardy, superintendent-president, told the board "our greatest disappointment is we will not be able to construct our last classroom and administration building on the Saratoga campus." Hardy was referring to the business education-student personnel-administration building which the college hoped to put to bid in 1971-72.

Dr. Lowery informed the board that $30 million had been anticipated for community college construction, but only $10.5 million was actually included. The other $20 million was put in the state budget to balance it.

Lowery explained that, if adopted in its current state, the budget would provide West Valley with approximately $421,000 for furniture for two buildings at Saratoga. "We had originally anticipated some $5 million for construction," he said, and noted West Valley would be receiving "only seven cents on the dollar" of what had been anticipated.

Lowery also explained to the board members that the proposed state budget included operational funds for community colleges funded at the same level per student as the current year.

CAMPBELL

M C s b E L R A

By Dawn Stoudinger

Ed. Note: Our Campbell High School reporter felt very strongly that she wanted to present the "case" for a schedule change at the school. So this week's column is not her usual activity report but a rather adult look at the proposed change. S.H.

Period 1 8:00 - 8:50
Period 2 8:55 - 9:45
Period 3 9:50 - 10:40
Period 4 10:45 - 11:35
Lunch 11:40 - 12:40
Period 5 12:45 - 1:35
Period 6 1:40 - 2:30

This would be the new class schedule that would be put into effect if the members of the Board of Trustees of CUHSD agree to a one hour lunch period at Campbell High School.

Each class period during the school day will be shortened from 55 minutes to 50 minutes, to provide a single lunch and activity period of 60 minutes. The additional 30 minutes will be used for tutorials, counseling and faculty-sponsored student activities.

What's especially good about this proposal is that the students, teachers and administrators of Campbell High have, and are, working together to make the one hour lunch period proposal a real thing of the present.

The following is a list of advantages of this proposed change:

1. The faculty will spend one-half of the lunch period in the classroom with students who are seeking help. Thus, there will be a continuous tutorial program, allowing more time for student-teacher meetings and discussion.

2. The present tutorial program can be replaced with an expanded and improved tutorial program.

3. Counselors, Deans and Directors of Activities would be more available to the students.

4. Many student activities could, if desired, be moved to a time that would benefit the entire student activity program. This means that students with after school jobs, sports, or transportation problems would now be able to participate in school activities.

5. Recreational programs could now be set up during the expanded lunch period.

6. Counselors and teachers would have an increased opportunity to schedule parent conferences, if this could be done during the expanded lunch period.

7. Rallies, drama skits, guest speakers, etc., could be scheduled during the expanded lunch period. This means fewer changes from the daily class schedule would be necessary for these events.

8. Since everyone would be eating lunch sometime during the expanded lunch period, there would be less of a problem of "lunch period noise" for classes in session (as exists with the present overlapping lunch period schedule).

The following is a discussion of the suggested disadvantages.

1. It has been suggested that more students leaving the campus for a longer period of time might adversely affect campus-community relations.

(It might be pointed out, however, that the open campus program is working out well so far this year, and we have no reason to believe that the proposed change would alter that situation.)

2. The community might feel that teachers are "merely trying to get out of work". The teachers' enthusiastic comments at the Jan. 15 meeting, however, show how far from the truth this idea is.

3. There is a possibility that the cafeteria services will be strained if the proposed change is put into effect. We hope to reserve the cafeteria for students buying hot lunches, and to have students with bag lunches, or snack bar food, eat outside or in rooms 33 or 34.

But these points should be considered:

1. This change will cost no money.

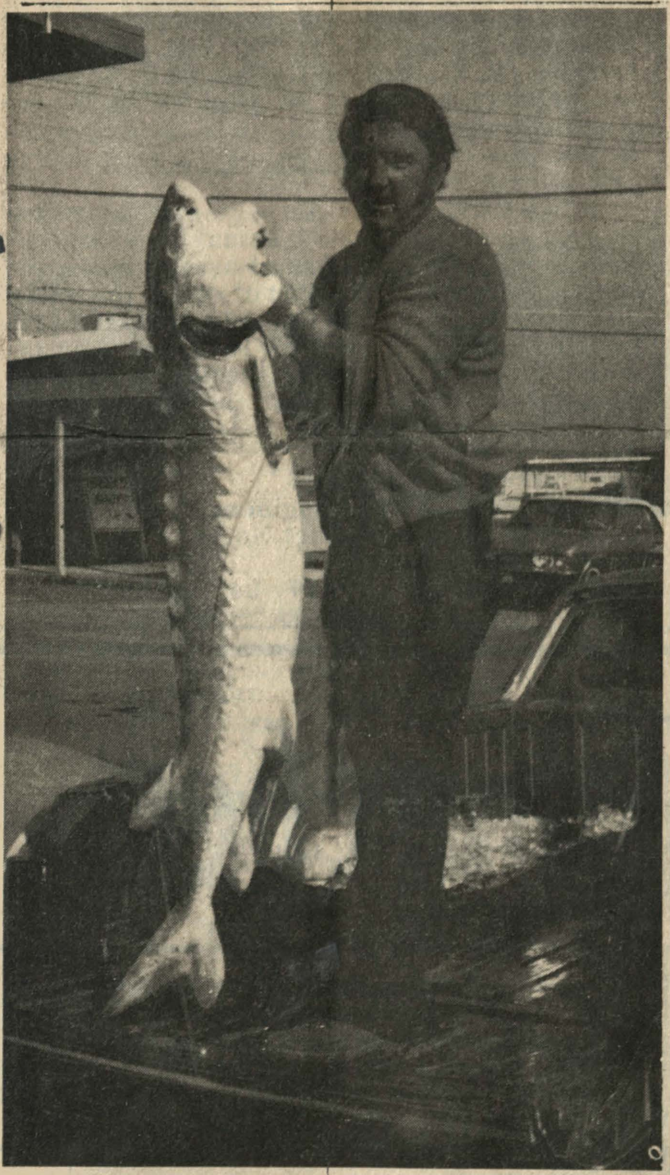
2. If the communications which have begun on a district-wide basis work, and are ultimately successful, some of our "talk" must result in implementation. Communications at Campbell are vastly improved, and this proposal is one of the first concrete results to emerge. Acceptance of this proposal will help to dispel a lingering cynicism, and will help to create an atmosphere conducive to constructive change.

CHURCH OPENS NEW SANCTUARY

The Saratoga Avenue Baptist Church, after meeting in make-shift and crowded facilities because of the destruction of their auditorium by fire in early 1970, will move into their new sanctuary on Sunday, Feb. 21. The Pastor, Rev. Harry Twining, will bring the opening message at both worship services, 8:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Hal Nunn, will sing, "Lead On O King Eternal". The soloist will be Mr. Ralph Lassen.

In the evening at 7:00 the film, HIS LAND, described as a "musical journey into the soul of a nation," will be shown. A nursery is provided at all services.



AT IT AGAIN???---Ski Kavaleski of Ski's Royal Furniture, 287 E. Campbell Ave., is trying to prove something, we're sure. And if you fishermen are green with envy, you should have seen the fish he caught LAST week. This 66 pound sturgeon was caught out of Alviso on A FIFTEEN POUND TEST LINE, from a 17 ft. inboard! It took Ski only 45 minutes to land this beauty. The 80 lb., 70" fish he caught last week (he has the pictures to prove it) took an hour and ten minutes and was caught with a 20 lb line. What happens to all that meat? Well, for a start, steaks, caviar, smoked sturgeon......

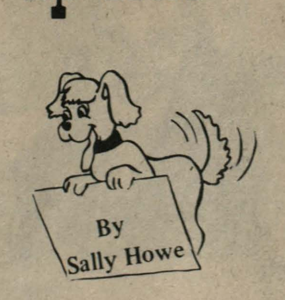
Bringing up fido



Are the dogs on your block looking expectant this week?

Maybe the word's gotten around that there's a dog show in town this Sunday.

There'll be about 3300 pooches present for the event.

And while Fido himself probably can't attend (you have to be pre-entered) there will be lots of things for you to see.

A few words about a dog show, in case you have never attended one before.

It's a kind of a phenomenon all its own.

Unless you have a little background of what's going on, it simply looks like hordes of dogs and people, all going in different directions at different times.

You'll hear snatches of strange words and phrases, like "bred by" and "Best opposite" and "group two" and "double handled" until you wonder if you're on to some new mod type of talk.

Dog owners can be pretty self-centered and don't usually include novices in their conversations.

However, all of them like to have their dogs admired.

Just don't admire them too strongly until AFTER the dog's been judged for the day. A dog owner is understandably tense before his pride and joy has had his turn in the ring.

Not all the dogs you'll see will be owned by the person who has custody of him.

Where you see "set-ups" of a large number of pens and different breeds together, chances are the person in charge is a licensed dog handler.

Handlers are persons who have been approved by a stringent set of standards of the American Kennel Club to receive pay for showing dogs they do not own. No one else is permitted to charge a dog owner for exhibiting a dog.

Handlers are generally just a little bit busier than the average dog owner, so will have even less time to talk to the public. In addition to grooming, scheduling and exercising his charges, he must also stand ready to consult with clients and prospective clients.

Dogs and owners at shows are extra tense so be sure you keep your small fry close at hand so he doesn't poke a sticky finger into a freshly brushed dog mane.

One of the most interesting parts of a dog show is the obedience section. Handlers of obedience dogs don't necessarily appreciate an audience too close to the rings, or who'll make too many distractions, but they don't mind a round of applause when their dog has done a good job.

Some other suggestions: don't feed dogs left in crates or pens—they aren't zoo animals.

Go early. The judging will start at 8 a.m. and at that time the crowd will likely be light.

Wesr confortable clothing. There are three buildings, number of outdoor rings and lots of ground to cover.

And, don't forget to take a treat home to Fido.

When all is said and done, he's your champion.

KINDERGARTEN REGISTRATION

Moreland's fourteen elementary schools are now registering kindergarten-age children for the 1971-72 school year according to Superintendent Richard L. Davis.

Davis requests registration at an early date to assure children of placement in a kindergarten class in their local school area.

Children born on or before Dec. 2, 1966 are eligible. Parents must furnish proof of birth date and immunization against polio and the ten-day measles.

Hours of registration are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"With sixpence in her shoe"

MRS. STEVE HAYES

With a silver sixpence in her shoe, Geri Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Anderson, 2194 Casa Mia, was married in St. Frances Cabrini Church by Rev. Harold T. Pearce recently.

Her groom was Steve Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes of Camden Ave.

The bride, escorted by her father, was gowned in a high necked organza gown with an empire waistline and long full sleeves. Venice lace on the cuffs and edging the chapel-length veil completed the costume.

Childhood friend Rita Ayers served as maid of honor. Miss Ayers wore a floor-length dress with pink chiffon sleeves and bodice and a ruby velvet skirt.

Bridesmaids were Sandy Hayes, sister of the groom and Monica Furtado, cousin of the bride.

Don Malmgren stood by Steve during the services while Don Anderson, Jim Van Huesen, Terry Spitze and Gary Baumgarder escorted guests to their seats.

Mrs. Anderson attended her daughter's wedding wearing a dress and coat ensemble of mulberry peau-de-soie with matching shoes.

Mrs. Hayes' costume was a full-skirted chiffon dress of shocking pink.

A Valentine decoration theme was carried out for the reception at Mary-Ann Gardens.

"Twin" going away outfits (white pants and red, white and blue tops) were selected by the just-weds who left for a week in Monterey before making their home in San Jose.

The new Mrs. Hayes graduated from Camden High School and San Jose College of Medical-Dental Assistants. She is currently employed in Cupertino.

The bridegroom also graduated from Camden and attended West Valley College. He is employed by the Bodega Restaurant.

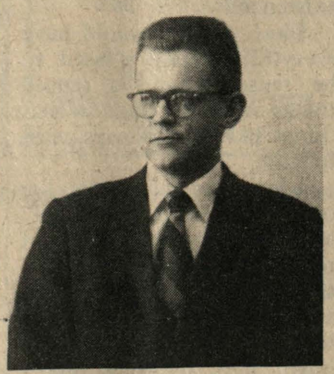
NEW AT KIRKWOOD PLAZA

With the opening of its new offices at 1790 W. Campbell Ave. in the Kirkwood Plaza, the Beneficial Finance Co. marks its 16th office to be opened in Santa Clara County. Norman Shockley, who has been with the company for the past five years, has been named manager of the Campbell offices.

Campbell customers of the finance organization who have accounts in other branches will be pleased to learn that their accounts are being transferred here.

Shockley, an Air Force veteran, is a native of Missouri, although he spent most of his early years in Santa Cruz, attending schools there and Chico State College.

Upon his discharge from the service, Shockley joined a Civil Engineering firm in Santa Cruz where he stayed until becoming a member of the Beneficial staff. He is married and has three children, two of them in grammar school.



NORMAN SHOCKLEY

The new Campbell office now becomes the newest of 1800 affiliates of the Beneficial Finance System in the U.S., Canada, Australia and Puerto Rico. Included in the company holdings are the Western Auto Stores and Spiegel, Inc., Chicago mail order firm.

The company was founded by Clarence Hodson as the Beneficial Loan Society in Elizabeth, N. J. in August of 1914. In less than five years it had expanded to 17 offices, and today has 1800.

WATCH THOSE COUPONS!

If you had taken advantage of all the coupon offers that appeared in the Campbell Press the past two weeks, you could have made a total saving of more than $35 cash on your purchases! This must be something of a record for any community newspaper. Where else could you get a $35 return from a 10¢ copy of a paper?

Incidentally, there are some pretty good offers in this week too, so get to clipping!

PRUNEYARD GROWING

Activity at the PruneYard continues at an accelerated pace as builders and workmen race to keep up with the steady demand for new store space. Six new stores are either opening this week, or in the process.

Among them are Lydia's Knit & Stitch shop (opening today), Bumble Bee Pie, Luanna's a barber shop, a patio furniture shop and a Weaver's Shoe store, all racing to the wire before the Easter rush of business begins.

Presbyterians install officers

New officers will be welcomed to their responsibilities at the 10:15 hour of worship in the Trinity Presbyterian Church, 3151 Union Ave., San Jose, on Sunday, Feb. 21.

Elders elect to be ordained and installed are: Ernest McCollum, Richard Kimrey, Larry Guerin, Cal Morris.

Willis Cox, Charles Gustafson, Mrs. Carrie McCollum, Mrs. Lillian Johns, Mrs. Edna Daulton, and Mrs. Juanita Bates are to be ordained as deacons.

"Seeking Only God's Approval" will be the subject of the message by the Interim Pastor, Dr. Lorin Ridings. A contemporary worship with guitars and folk hymns is at 9:15 each Sunday morning.

POLLUTION, POLLUTION, POLLUTION

The new shibboleth these days is Ecology.

Ecology is nice.

Ecology is necessary.

Ecology is NOW! (I never have figured out what they mean by THAT).

Ecology is the study of the balance of things. The balance between what comes into existence and what goes out of existence.

Ideal ecology would have everything which is used to be reused, and the reused things be again reused so that things like dump heaps cease to exist.

I heard a group talking the other day about the "ideal" ecology and what it might result in. Under the "ideal situation" for example, instead of burying the dead bodies of dead people, we might have human compost areas to recycle the organic products and thus return them to the soil more quickly.

Imagine, after a few years, the resulting humus might be found to be so valuable that we could start planning a campaign to increase the birth rate so that the eventual supply of human organic by-product could keep up with the demand.

The thing that worries me, though, right now is the pollution of the MINDS that is going on.

Under the name of advertising expediency we are asked to believe in the concept of an average American family like that shown on TV commercials. A concept where it is perfectly reasonable to accept a kindly elderly Mrs. Olsen who is the world's foremost expert on perked coffee.

Or, we are asked to accept the idea that there is, somewhere in the world, a teenaged girl to whom the most important thing in her young life is a contest to "beat the frizzies".

How about if we start making demands that the advertisers, in order to sort of re cycle the mind pollution they are creating, we demand that they endow and support a department of symbolic logic in a major university to show the falsity of most advertising arguments?

Suppose the concept of equal time were demanded of the people who, at election time were required to demonstrate the validity of their argument that "vote no on 'P'–don't shut the colleges" does NOT mean that a "yes" vote is a vote that will shut the colleges.

I'm afraid to vote either way; does that mean that I'd like to shut half of the colleges? Come to think of it, that might not be a bad idea either, if we could just decide WHICH half.

Afternoon class avoids the rush

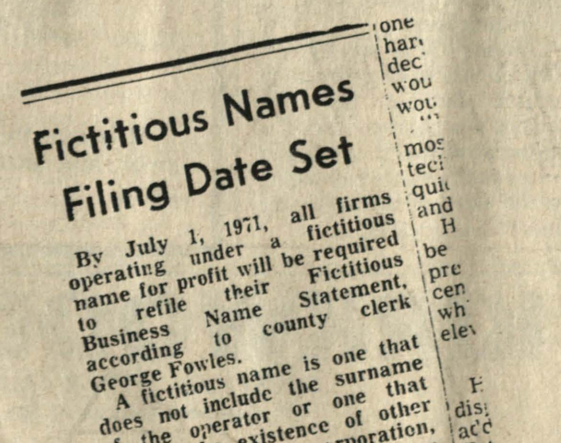
For the Campbell resident who works in San Jose and would like to avoid the rush traffic at night with a constructive delay, the San Jose YWCA is going to offer classes from 5 until 6 p.m. three evenings a week, beginning next week.

The San Jose YW is a United Fund Agency open to all women and girls; some activities are open to men and boys. Information about services can be obtained from the Metropolitan YW, 210 South Second St., San Jose, 292-1075, or the Cambrian Center, 4343 Leigh Ave., 269-7534.

Scheduled at the 210 S. Second St. building next week from 5 until 6 p.m. are "Yoga for Men and Women" taught by Leila McBride Tuesdays and Thursdays; "Stretch and Sew" taught by Helen Petrianos on Wednesdays; "Macrame," the seaman's art of knotting, taught by Art Reynolds on Thursdays; "Recycle Crafts," taught by Barbara Pollock on Wednesdays.

Mr. Businessman:

Here's an important message--



Fictitious Names Filing Date Set

By July 1, 1971, all firms operating under a fictitious name for profit will be required to refile their Fictitious Business Name Statement, according to county clerk George Fowles.

A fictitious name is one that does not include the surname of the operator or one that implies the existence of other owners; or, if a corporation, if it includes a name other than the name given in the articles of incorporation. The filing fee will be $10.

Fowles pointed out that while the new law does not become effective until July 1, businesses may refile at any time between January 1, 1971 and June 30, 1971. He urges all businesses affected to comply as soon after January 1 as possible to avoid the rush at deadline.

Legal publication of the statement is required if there has been any change in the information required in the statement previously filed.

The office of the County Clerk will furnish forms required by the new law. Written material concerning the new procedure is available at that office.

The Campbell Press is authorized by the Superior Court to publish this notice for you.

Following the filing of forms with the County Clerk, bring your Fictitious Business or Partnership Statement to us for publication

Pursuant to sections 16201 through 16205 of the Education Code of the State of California.

WHEREAS, the CAMPBELL UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT of Santa Clara County, State of California, hereinafter called "District," is the owner of the following described parcels of real property situated in said District and in said County, to wit: Parcels No. One (1) and Two (2) as more particularly and respectively described in the attached Exhibits A and B.

WHEREAS, this Board of Trustees has determined that said parcels of real property are not now and will not at the time of delivery of title or possession be needed for school classroom buildings; and

WHEREAS, this Board has determined that it is in the best interests of said District to sell said parcels of real property to the CITY OF SAN JOSE, a public agency.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that this Board of Trustees shall enter into and be a party to such sale with the CITY OF SAN JOSE; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said parcels of real property shall be sold subject to the terms and conditions as set forth as follows: District and City shall enter into an agreement whereby District will transfer the property in fee to the City in return for City's installation of improvements adjacent to and upon the adjoining school property. The improvements consist of paving, curb and gutter, sidewalks, driveways, street lights and signals, fencing and landscaping, which improvements are of a value approximately equal to the value of the property transferred to City. For further particulars, reference is made to the written agreement proposed to be executed by District and the City for conveyance and improvements on Fruitdale and Leigh Avenue, copies of which are on file at the District Administration Offices at 155 North Third Street, Campbell, California 95008.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of this Board is hereby authorized and directed (1) to execute the above described agreement and deliver same to the City of San Jose, (2) to execute deeds for these parcels of property on behalf of this District to the CITY OF SAN JOSE granting the said parcels of real property and (3) to deliver the same to the CITY OF SAN JOSE upon the performance of the foregoing terms or in the alternative, to deposit the same in escrow subject to such performance.

AND IT IS HEREBY FURTHER RESOLVED AND ORDERED that this resolution be published no less than once a week for three weeks prior to the execution of the agreement and the making of the sale in the CAMPBELL PRESS.

Letters to the Editor

RESPONDS TO CRITICS

Mr. Vierhus,

I have been paring words from my original letter and I cannot cut out any more. Since I was requested by two letters to answer questions, I hope that you will allow the extra 97 words over your 500 word limit.

I have tried to be extra factual so there can be no question of these facts and that adds up to words. I have allowed myself only the final short paragraph to comment editorially.

DM

To Mr. Gordon Abbott and Mr. "Hank" Mestice,

Mr. Abbott asked for the "alleged corrections" which I "inferred were made" of his report to the board in my letter Feb. 3, '71.

The night of the meeting (Jan. 14, '71) at Castlemont School immediately after Mr. Abbott's presentation of the "Citizens' Advisory Finance Committees' delayed rebuttal", Mrs. Joan Franks was recognized by the President, Dr. Richard MacQuiddy.

She corrected Mr. Abbott's statement: "It should also be pointed out the President of this Board is an Ex-Officio member of any committee appointed by the Board." The Board Policy #9150, as quoted by Mrs. Franks, states that: " The SUPERINTENDENT shall be Ex-Officio a member of all committees."

It was later discovered that this committee was not appointed by the Board but by the then Supt. of Schools, Mr. Neal Royer.

It was also stated by Mr. Abbott that: "Mr. John Merrill (sic), the Board President at that time severely reprimanded the Business Manager as the Board minutes of the special Oct. 14, '68 meeting indicate." Because the minutes were not immediately at hand—no correction was made at that time. However, research at the District Office produced this quotation from the minutes of Oct. 15, '68: "President John Merriell recommended that the Board accept the material as submitted by the Business Manager and Supervisor of Accounts as being satisfactory reconciliation of the District's advertised budget, actual operating budget and the budget report for July 1968. President Merriell also suggested that such a report be made to the Board at the proper time next year.

It was also suggested that future changes to the District's budget by the County officials be brought to the attention of this Board."

I am sure that "Reasonable people understand that facts are indisputable." (Quote G. Abbott, "Letters to the Editor", Feb. 10, '71).

Mr. Mestice asks that I explain the vote to censure the Board by the C.E.T.A. I cannot do this because my letters have NEVER "Inferred" representation of anyone other than Dorothy Mitchell, "housewife,—a former teacher, mother of children in the Campbell Schools, and the wife of a teacher." (Quote D. Mitchell, "Letters to the Editor", Oct. 21, '70).

I refer Mr. Mestice to the San Jose News, Nov. 11, '70 and the San Jose Mercury, Nov. 13, '70 wherein Herb Wadley, Pres. of C.E.T.A., was quoted as saying, "Negotiations started April 23 and have been without progress UNTIL ABOUT THE LAST THREE WEEKS." (Please notice this was about one month after Mr. D'Avis assumed the position of Acting Superintendent.)

Mr. Mestice also asked about my statement of the efficiency of our schools since Oct. 8. I quote a newsletter to the parents of Castlemont School from Principal Dave MacLeod, dated Dec. '70: "Even though our District is involved in some pretty awesome struggles financially and school board wise, our staff—your school—continues to provide the best education possible.

Even though we are all concerned, we recognize our responsibility to you and your children—and we are doing everything possible to continue to improve our program and not allow these other factors to interfere. You can durn sure count on this! You have supported our needs through your votes time and time again, and we intend to continue to be worthy of your support and your votes in the future."

I am a private concerned citizen. I speak for myself only. I hope that no one else will have to suffer because of my opinions—including my husband, who allows me the privilege of free expression." I also ask that I be censured or acclaimed for MY views alone!

Dorothy Mitchell

ON "COVERAGE"

ED NOTE:

Many requests are received at the Campbell Press asking us to cover events. Try as we might, we can't figure out how to stretch time and staff (and news space) to please everyone.

Dear Editor,

I feel if you did not allow your negative feelings toward the C.E.T.A. to cloud your judgement you would have reported a recent "happening" in the Feb. 3 Campbell Press.

Since I read of the meeting in the Press beforehand I know you knew of it.

It happened on the 27th of Jan. It involved about 450 people, some parents, teachers and administration. They met and talked about conditions, ideas, and situations that could be made into proposals to better the education of our children.

It was so good to see the community working together in spite of those that would split us. This is not the picture your paper paints of our district. It was good to meet and work with the teachers and see some of the problems and work toward solving them.

It would be good to have better coverage of these meetings and less of the gossip sheet you have become. I'm sure you have no lack of space that stops you from printing something good if it would help bring our community back together.

Thank you,
Mr. & Mrs. Ronald Christensen
4769 Condon Drive
San Jose.

ON REBUTTAL

Dear Editor:

The wife of a Monroe Elementary School teacher Mrs. Dorothy Mitchell has apparently assumed the role of political assassin for the Board majority of the CUSD and the CUSD Business Manager, C. E. Bradley.

She claims that the Citizens' Advisory Finance Committee's delayed rebuttal was corrected at the January 14 Board meeting by members of the Board. I attended that meeting and heard the presentation of the rebuttal in its entirety. When Mr. Abbott concluded the rebuttal he received a warm applause.

Mrs. Joan Franks, a frequent and unsuccessful Board Candidate, who has been serving as Chairman of a district "Policy Review Committee" leaped up and was recognized by Dr. MacQuiddy, the board president. Mrs. Franks claimed that the board policy did not include the President of the Board of Trustees as an ex-officio member of board appointed committees as the Citizens' Advisory Finance Committee rebuttal pointed out.

Could Mrs. Franks have been humored by Past Board President John Merriell into this position while awaiting another of her many attempts to win a seat on the Board?

This committee formed in 1969 to rewrite the Board Policy Manual and has yet to give its final report. (Our founding fathers took approximately three months to write the U.S. Constitution).

The committee appears to be a nesting place for prospective political allies of the board majority. The committee admits that the board has no operating policy. If this is the case, Roberts Rules of Order take precedent. According to Roberts Rules, the president is ex-officio member of all committees.

I suggest that Dr. MacQuiddy charge Mrs. Franks and her committee to submit their final report before the contents are antiquated by changes in State law.

Sincerely,
Mrs. T.Y. Anderson

Letters to the Editor

ON SPACE AVAILABLE

Editor:

Although Mr. Gordon Abbott's letter (Feb. 10 edition Campbell Press) was not addressed to me I feel it necessary to comment on a particular statement in his letter—that comment being "Mrs. Mitchell, you owe it to the public to state the corrections....."

I would refer the reader to the "Out on the Limb" editorial of February 3, 1971 by Mr. Vierhus which concerns these corrections which I had submitted. Apparently the editor agrees it is owed to the public only if he feels space is available.

COMMENDS COUNCIL

Dear Editor:

This is a copy of the letter we sent to the City Council. You may want to use it in your paper.

—Arva M. Knowles.

Dear Gentlemen:

We wish to thank the councilmen who had the courage to "stand up and be counted" in regard to the expenditure for ash trays.

The city hall is being built with taxpayers' money—for the needs and convenience of all the people in Campbell.

Why should many of these taxpayers suffer from the noxious fumes of tobacco, while they are on legitimate business?

What is there HEALTHY about sitting in a smoke-polluted room? Goodness knows, we have to put up with more than enough UNAVOIDABLE pollution already; so why have UNnecessary pollution forced on an audience?

Many public places won't allow smoking in the general area—theaters, some air-lines, some public halls. Let the smokers go outside.

We are not in favor of taxpayers' money—$116, $348, or any other sum—being spent on ash trays for the city hall—ever.

With almost a daily report on TV and in newspapers (the enclosed clipping is an example), of cities and counties going through great financial crises, even to bankruptcy, it behooves our city council to do everything in its power to spend money for ESSENTIALS ONLY, to cut every possible corner in city expense.

Thank you for serving the community well and wisely.

Yours truly,
Arva M. Knowles
Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Johnson

COMMENDS PROGRAM

Dear Editor:

Because several of my students were participating in the Honor Orchestra program at Campbell Elementary School last week, I attended the concert.

I wish to commend the district for sponsoring such a program, the directors for their work, and the students for taking time to participate.

I hope to see more of such programs and — perhaps — a little larger audience.

DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

The Fall-Winter games of the Northern California Darts Assn. have drawn to a close with the Gaslighter Theater I team taking the South Bay League Championship. The Gaslighters proceed to the East Bay division playoff Sunday, Feb. 21, 2 p.m. at the Halfway Club, 16343 E. 14th St., San Leandro.

The other leagues in the East Bay division are the Bridge, Chabot and Diablo. The West Bay division, which will be playing off at the same time, is composed of the Transbay, Golden Gate and City Leagues. The winners of the two division playoffs will meet the following Sunday (Feb. 28) at a location still to be determined.

On their way to the League Championship, the Gaslighters never lost a match, although they tied four. They were in first place most of the season. Never worse than three games out, they finished the season eight games ahead of the second place, Lancashire Lad I.

In the last match of the Fall-Winter games, the Gaslighters needed to win only three games to cinch the title. Lad I's Dave Ingols won the first game with the Gaslighters taking the next four and the title. With the pressure off the match ended in a 6-6 tie.

While congratulating the team on their South Bay title and wishing them well in the divisionals, I think we should mention them all by name. The team captain is John Glaze and the team members are: Kip Fanjoy, South Bay League Governor; the father and son team of Ben and Jim Macredes; Ted Allen and rounded out with Bill Sprecher, one of the three players in the association to shoot a perfect 180 in competition this season.

HI-SCORE NITE

On the last night of competition, it looked like everybody was trying to burn the board with high scores. The Scuttlebutt led the way when they beat Banbury Clock II, 8-4.

Team Captain Jack Mehtala shot a 120 and a 140. Lynn Quam had 2 tons (100's). Paul Schultz shot a 113 and 2 tons with John Lilly also shooting a 113. Phil Kelly was the only member of Banbury Clock II to break a hundred with a 125.

At the Banbury Clock, where the Clock I defeated the Black Knight (8-4), Roy Haslam shot a 140 and two tons. Des Maples was the hottest shot of the night by shooting a 108 away followed by a 140, 248 points scored in six darts. As if that wasn't enough for the evening, he also shot a ton and two 82's away.

The Black Knights Willy Buhl had an 83 away and a ton with teammate Clay Cowden shooting a 120.

Meanwhile back in Campbell at the Gaslighter Theater, Tom Carroll and Carl Aydelotte won the only two matches the Gaslighter II team took from the Lancashire Lad II. Carroll threw a 125 in a 14 dart game and Aydelotte shot a 105 in a similarly short game.

The Lad's Bob Nichols countered with a 120 in a 14 dart game with Bob Mayer shooting a 130. Carroll along with teammate Faye Cupp both threw tons.

. . . for the young in heart!

When you buy a new bike at an "ordinary," non-bicycle store you often have to take the carton home and assemble the bike yourself. Frequently, an additional charge is made for the assembly service. When you buy a bike from us there is nothing ordinary about it. First, it is a Schwinn — one of the world's finest bicycles. Second, we are a factory franchised Schwinn dealer — so you can rely on our service and quality. Third — every bike we sell is assembled, adjusted, and ready-to-ride.

SERVICE? WE'LL TAKE CARE OF IT!
From time to time even the finest equipment requires the steady hand of a factory trained serviceman. If you need help, isn't it a comfort to know we're right around the corner. Whether it's a tire change, or a complete bike rebuilding job, we are ready . . . cheerful, fast, and efficient.
